Please Notice Me – Proverbs 29:25-27

Living in light of the Resurrection Series

Transformed Character, Being a sign to the world

Who are you? What you do? Who you are?

Based on our ability or disability?

“Who Am I” A Clamed Storm not necessarily calmed heart

Source of the storm: Focus of our hope

Proverbs 29:25-27 <sup>25</sup> Fear of man will prove to be a snare, but whoever trusts in the Lord is kept safe.

<sup>26</sup> Many seek an audience with a ruler, but it is from the Lord that one gets justice.

I can only do what the father does. Gives life to Dead

You enjoyed John’s truth for a while.

Truth I have is weightier, You Study the word but not Believe IT

John 5:41-44 Do not accept glory from humans

John 12:42-43

Lk 16:15 “You are the ones who justify yourselves in the eyes of others, but God knows your hearts. What people value highly is detestable in God’s sight.

Matthew 10:28-31 God Cares about the state of his creatures

Rom 12:3 Don’t think of yourself more highly than you ought – Reflecting true balance.

Our response:

Focus on what is unseen

Our present weakness is modified by our resurrection hope.

2 Cor 4:18 So we fix our eyes unseen

Psalms 145:1-3 <sup>1</sup> I will exalt you, my God the King;

Listening to what others say or what you say can be detrimental or inspirational

We must view ourselves through God’s true assessment
